TEACHERS COLLEGE

TO THE STUDENTS

We have sought to assemble an annual which depicts memorable scenes and characteristic bits from Cullowhee's swift moving campus parade, and to preserve in permanent form the part which you have played in this vital chapter of the history and progress of your college.

P R E S I D E N T

H. T. Hunter

The College a Citadel of Democracy

Much is being said these days of America as an ARSENAL OF DEMOCRACY. The conception is an arresting and breath-taking one. Our beloved country—the wealthiest and freest land on this planet—pledges its material resources to all liberty-loving peoples, to the end that they may, without fear, enjoy democracy's priceless boon. Our hearts feel a surge of patriotism at the thought of this great land playing such a role.

The College campus cannot be a military arsenal, a manufacturer or storer of arms. But it can foster and maintain that which is equally essential to the democracies: the spirit of devotion to democratic ideals. It can be a citadel where these ideals are cherished and defended. It is my ardent hope and prayer that, here on the campus of Western Carolina Teachers College, we may not only succeed in cherishing such ideals, but that we may exemplify them, and that we may build up a spirit of devotion to them and a readiness to sacrifice for them.

—H. T. HUNTER.

MINOR SPORTS

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

Literally, "Intramural" means "within the walls". Intramural athletics, therefore, may be defined as athletic activities carried on within the walls of an institution. The primary aim of intramural sports is to engage the many students who do not participate in inter-collegiate sports. It offers an equal opportunity of participation to all, and required participation of none. The variety of the intramural program which includes touch football, basketball, softball, horseshoes, badminton, volley ball, ping pong, wrestling, paddle tennis, tennis, golf, archery, swimming, field day, shuffleboard, etc., is sufficient to engage all types. The administration and scheduling of the entire program are under direction of the students. Intramurals, then, set a new precedent in building initiative and health.

The Baptist Student Union, an organization of Christian students, is dedicated to the promotion of higher thinking and nobler living for students while on the campus of W. C. T. C. Sponsored by the local Baptist church and directed by the Executive Council pictured above, the Union has attempted this year to interest students in Christian work by making the program of the Church an integral part of college life.

To the many members of the B. S. U. and to the four organizations represented by this group; in happy acknowledgement of the support and cooperation shown by them at all times, the Council dedicates this page.

A Tribute

This, the 1941 issue of the CATAMOUNT is the result of many hours of tedious work by the Staff and Faculty Advisers. We wish to commend them for a job well done.

Their efficiency and cooperation has made the designing and producing of this book a pleasant task.
